TELEMEDICINE TECHNOLOGIES, publisher of collaborative e-Health solutions, CleanWeb in the field of Clinical Research and VisionHM for the management of patient care in health care institutions, announces the issue of BSA AIR (Bon de Souscription d'Actions - Accord d'Investissement Rapide).

All information and access to the BSA-AIR subscription form are available at Vaughan Avocats.

This issue, in one or more instalments, was authorised at the company's extraordinary general meeting of 15 September 2022, for a maximum amount of EUR 1,000,000 with maintenance of the shareholders' preferential right.

Initial subscriptions of up to EUR 225,000 have been received for a first issue. A second issue is being launched for a maximum amount of EUR 500,000

This transaction, via an innovative investment method, demonstrates TELEMEDICINE TECHNOLOGIES' desire to accelerate its development phase.

TELEMEDICINE TECHNOLOGIES has experienced organic growth of 25% per year since the 2020 financial year and has carried out two external growth operations during this same period: the purchase in 2021 of the business of a Belgian e-CRO specialising in clinical data management, and the purchase in 2022 of the Swiss company Dapsys, publisher of the VisionHM solution.
